The Nicholas Stoltzfus Homestead

The Nicholas Stoltzfus Homestead is located at:
 1700 Tulpehocken Road, Wyomissing, PA, United States,
 19610

The Nicholas Stoltzfus Homestead is a stone-built English colonial-style house built in the early-1700s in Wyomissing, Pennsylvania. After passing through the ownership of several families, the property, including the stone house and a barn, was purchased in 1771 by Nicholas Stoltzfus and his son Christian Stoltzfus. Nicholas and his wife Anna Elisabeth and their 4 children emigrated from Zweibrucken, Germany before purchasing the house. For many years the tract of land was a working farm. The Stoltzfus family were part of the Old Order Amish Anabaptist group. The Nicholas Stoltzfus family are the progenitors for all the Stoltzfus surnames in America.

Silent Auction at the 2026 SSS FA Gathering

We plan to hold a silent auction at the SSS FA Gathering at the Nicholas Stoltzfus Homestead on July 17 & 18, 2026. We wish to include in the silent auction books, handcrafted items, and items which will interest attendees. We prefer that mugs and plates from prior Gatherings not be included. To date the J.M. Smucker Company has donated three gift baskets. Please contact Jim Smoker at jsmoker725@comcast.net with your proposed donation.
